Other Important Notes: Most activities will take place in an outdoor environment. Generally, the temperature is 10 or more degrees cooler than in Boulder. Mountain weather is variable, so be sure to bring jackets! At this altitude the sun is stronger, so remember your water bottles, sunhats or caps. Apply sunscreen in the morning, and bring more to apply after lunch! Thank you for leaving your pets at home!

Acknowledgement of Risks and Agreement for Participation at The Colorado Mountain Ranch:

- I understand that there are numerous risks associated with participation in any Camp activities including but not limited to hiking, horses, small farm animals, target sports, ropes courses, gymnastics, trampoline, crafts and vehicles. Activities will take place in an outdoor environment in mountainous terrain. For this and other reasons, the risks cannot be eliminated, altered or completely controlled. Some but not all of the risks include: Horses and other camp animals which are involved in some activities are sometimes unpredictable, may step on, kick or bite, may act and respond in unexpected ways to such things as sounds, movement, unfamiliar objects, persons, other animals, automobiles and weather conditions. Counselors, guides and administrators who try and use their best judgment in determining how to react to circumstances may sometimes misjudge. Weather conditions may change rapidly and cause injury directly (hail, lightning, sunburn, etc.). Equipment used may break, fail or malfunction despite reasonable maintenance and use. Natural environment and weather in connection with horses or any outdoor activity can create risk or injury from tree branches, falling, tripping, insect or animal contact, unstable surface conditions, rocks and dirt.
- I give my permission to use any individual or group photographs showing me and my child/children in camp activities for publicity and brochure purposes.
- I give my permission for my family to enter into all camp activities other than any restrictions listed, including trips away from camp premises whether on foot, horseback or by camp vehicle.
- I understand that in the event that if anyone in my family has a medical emergency, if I am not available this constitutes a release for the treating physician(s) and guarantees payment. I understand The Ranch does not provide medical insurance and I am responsible for all medical bills.
- I agree that my family and I will assume all of the risks whether known or unknown and do hereby release and forever discharge The Colorado Mountain Ranch, its administrators, employees and agents of any liability, with respect to any injury, illness, damage or death, occurring while we participate in any and all camp programs, activities and transportation.
- I agree that the law of the State of Colorado shall govern this document and all other aspects of my and my child's relationship with The Colorado Mountain Ranch and its agents and employees. Further, I agree that any legal proceeding concerning such relationship must be filed exclusively in the State of Colorado.

I have custody of children listed on this registration and am authorized to sign this agreement. I have read and understand the above and agree to be bound by the terms of this document.

I authorize a facsimile or scan of this completed registration to serve as an original.
